the German recruitment agency for skilled workers – at one glance

> Skilled workers from Germany

Europe is growing together and the mobility of Germany employees is increasing. German skilled workers are very sought-after abroad due to their good education and high work ethic. The DHV is one of the leading private recruitment agencies specialised in skilled work in Germany.

> Your experts on skilled workers

Our main focus is on the full-time job placement of skilled workers. We offer you the possibility to access a big database with several thousands of qualified workers. If your company is looking for employees in the area of skilled labour, now or in the future, we will surely be able to find the right candidate for you.

> How do we actually work?

>> You give us the job specifications for your vacancies and we compare this to the professional skills and abilities of the workers and then forward the suitable candidates to you.

>> Our skilled workers are job-seeking and will be available immediately.

> DHV – your advantages:

>> We will provide a constant contact person for your company.

>> Large savings of time and a relief for your personnel department through the forwarding of suitable candidates.

>> We have already become acquainted with the candidates and assessed their suitability and qualifications professionally.

>> You will receive the candidate suggestions in profiles created specially by us. These provide a quick and uncomplicated summary of the professional career of the worker.

>> Our business is success orientated. Only after the worker has been successfully employed by your company we receive our fee.

>> The candidates are flexible with respect to location and immediately ready to begin.

To lead our work to success we take care of our corporate contacts and we are looking forward to your inquiry.
